

LOCAL NEWS

Judge C. R. Brice is in the city today.

Benton Stone, of Roswell, was in town Friday.

Elbert Shipp left for his home at Knowles yesterday.

Mrs. S. D. Stennis, Jr., and daughter, are on the sick list.

W. J. Barber made his usual Monday trip to the city today.

Boston Witt is in the city from his ranch greeting old friends today.

The plains mail line took out an unusually large amount of mail today.

A. G. Flemming and bride were in town Saturday. Mr. Flemming looked after business and Mrs. Flemming visited her mother, Mrs. Ramuz.

Guss Dean sold his wagon and four horse team last week, while in town, and returned to Queen on the mail car.

Tom Gray arrived in the city from his ranch yesterday evening. He is looking fine.

Miss Wardie, daughter of Bert Leck, who was ill for several days, is improving rapidly.

The entered apprentice degree was conferred on Keith Ferguson last Saturday night by Eddy lodge No. 21, F. and A. M.

Mrs. Fred Leck was brought in from Kermit, Texas, Saturday evening. She has an attack of appendicitis and came here for treatment so as to forestall an operation if possible.

W. W. Smith and family from the Delaware ranch, were in town this morning.

Miss Henderson, of Malaga, who is a trained nurse, came home from the plains country where she was nursing and was in town Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cunningham and little son, William McIntosh, came in Saturday from their Lovington ranch and spent Sunday in town.

Miss Flora Smith returned to her home at Frijole Saturday. She enjoyed a week in Carlsbad visiting her numerous girl friends.

Dolph Lusk and wife were in from Lovington attending the wedding at the C. N. Jones' home Sunday evening. Dolph has purchased a fine new car and they were trying it out on this trip.

Allen Stewart, wife and Miss Ruby Duncan motored to Roswell and returned Sunday. They met Mr. Stewart who was in El Paso and came on response to a wire that Hugh Stewart is very ill.

John Barber and family left this morning for the ranch. They have been occupying the Bert Rawlins home for a few weeks. The baby is doing fine now.

Lewis Means, wife, Jack Scott, and one of Mr. Sikes' head men, went to Roswell Friday night. Mrs. Means expected to stop over in Artesia, hearing her mother, Mrs. McMahan, was ill.

V. S. Unruh, engineer of the Pecos Valley Southern of Pecos, Texas, is in the city on a visit for a few days.

Many of our country cousins with their faces ruddy and beaming, were in the city Saturday shopping. The very young folks were exceptionally conspicuous as they eagerly took in the sights.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

The right suit for business men

HERE it is, made by Hart Schaffner and Marx. It's right in quality, style, and in price; the fabrics are wool; the suit looks like twice the money; it's every bit as good as it looks.

Notice the stylish lapels; the clean, sure lines. We guarantee to fit you. You'll save money and get one of the best suits you've ever had. We'll show you any day. The Home of Hart Schaffner and Marx clothes

$25 $30 $35 $40

T. C. HORNE

The home of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes

WOMEN ARE ENLISTING

We are constantly enlisting recruits for our regular Battalion of Thoroughly Satisfied Customers.

We stand the examination, not you, and we guarantee to make good in all cases.

Enlisting the Women is no new business for us.

Our Dry Goods Emporium is being used as our regular Recruiting Station.

ENLIST NOW.

JOYCE - PRUIT CO.

Acree brothers are in the city for several days, having visited the Panhandle of Texas and many other localities looking for a location. Mrs. Ben Acree made the trip with them. These trips are proving a cure for Mr. and Mrs. Acree. They are looking fine.

B. Bartlett came in Saturday with Frank Miser and spent Sunday with his family, returning to his barber shop in Lovington today. Mr. Bartlett anticipates moving his family to the plains as soon as he can get a house or find a carpenter who has time to build one.

Born, to N. C. Dugan and wife, in La Huerta, Sunday morning an eight pound son. This is the seventh son that gaddens the Dugan home, the oldest being but ten years old.

The rubbish from the round house fire has all been cleared away. Nothing definite as to the Santa Fe's intention has been ascertained. It is to be hoped, however, that they will rebuild at once.

The Seniors, Juniors and Sophomores of the Carlsbad high school, had a most delightful picnic at Avalon dam last Saturday. The weather man very considerably provided an ideal day for the merry-makers. Prof. Brinton annexed a most sublime sunburn.

A telephone box was placed on the corner of Fox and Canyon streets, so should the occasion require in case of riot or trouble, the marshal could be reached quickly and a general alarm given.

Dr. Munger called on the Mr. Hart at the Dark Canyon pumping station last Saturday evening to discuss botany and horticulture. Dr. Munger is quite an authority on horticulture.

Our friend, R. E. Platt, was awarded the contract to carry the mail to Frijole, Texas, at the point of the mountains. His first trip will be next Wednesday and will be made twice a week.

Mr. Sprong, proprietor of the Missouri hotel, in his usual quiet unassuming way, has contributed to the wealth of the city by making the vacant ground around the hotel bear a part of life's burdens. He has a fine garden in which to put in his spare time.

The work on the Tansil dam is progressing very satisfactory. There are a dozen four horse teams engaged in filling in with earth the break caused by the flood last summer.

Mrs. G. F. Isaacs, who has been somewhat indisposed for several days, is able to be about the city Saturday.

Don't forget the Company B benefit at the Armory tonight.

Mrs. J. F. Allison, we are sorry to state, is not improving as was hoped for. She has been indisposed for several weeks with an attack of nervous prostration. Joe Cunningham arrived in the city yesterday from his ranch on the plains. Joe says country life is good enough for him from henceforth.

Miss Speck of Artesia closed a very successful term of school on Lone Tree Friday. Miss Speck attended the dance at the Armory Friday evening and expected to leave for her home a few days.

Mrs. John Murrah, of Lakewood, is in town today getting dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Rube Knowles, Winfred and West, and the baby boy, were down from Artesia today transacting business.

Judge Pistole, of Artesia, is transacting legal business today in Carlsbad.

Bert Leck left in his auto for Roswell at noon today. He was accompanied by Mesdames Bert Leck, Dock Vest, John Hewitt, R. J. Toffelmire to attend the head camp meeting of the Woodmen Circle. Mrs. Hewitt and Mrs. Toffelmire are delegates from Carlsbad.

Arthur Mayes and sister, Mrs. Geo. Stone, were in town Friday.

Mas Fletcher was in town Friday.

Rev. Mr. Lowry came in from the south Friday on the Pecos train.

ARMORY DANCE.

In response to dainty invitations with Mr. and Mrs. Hardy, Jr., as host and hostess, a large crowd attended the dance Friday evening. Fifty couples or more danced to splendid music furnished by home talent. Mrs. Downing and Miss Edith Force received and Mrs. Henry Tipton, Mrs. Melvaine and others served a splendid luncheon. The invitations called the young people from every town in the valley and all the big ranches were represented. After the young people were once acquainted and were dancing, the wee hours of day found them untiring. The proceeds will be used to beautify the Otis school grounds. The visitors wish to congratulate the committees for the success and pleasures of the evening.

FOR SALE.

2 brood mares with colts.
1 Jersey Milk Cow.
1 Jersey Heifer Calf.
13 Colonies Bees.
26 Supers, frames and foundation.
Household Goods.

H. G. HOWARD,
Lovington, N. M.

R. E. Dick Druggist

Prescriptions sent to me will have careful attention

COMPANY B.

Don't forget to see the "Patrolling the Border and the New Recruit" tonight at the Armory. It is well worth the price. The songs and camp life scenes are well worth the money—25, 35 and 50 cents. They have been requested to reproduce this play by a large number of people. The proceeds will be used to buy a much needed flag staff that will creditably float Old Glory. Don't miss the show.

EMBARGO BILL INTRODUCED.

By Associated Press. Washington, April 16—With the administration's approval, Congressman Adamson introduced the war embargo bill which empowers the president to forbid the export of foods or any other articles of any sort when he deems it in the interest of the public to do so.

Miss Minnie Jones and Mr. William Lusk were married Sunday evening, a full account of which will appear tomorrow.

Announcement

WE ARE OPENING AN UP TO THE MINUTE SERVICE STATION AND SALESROOM FOR DODGE, FRANKLIN AND CHALMERS CARS IN THE SMITH BLOCK FORMERLY OCCUPIED BY LINN'S PAINT STORE.

We will carry a full stock of parts, and will be in every way qualified to take care of the above cars. Pennsylvania Vacuum Cup Tires, special oils, peculiarly adapted to Franklin, Chalmers and Dodge will be available here all the time.

We invite your inspection.

J. D. OLIVER